

PANEL PRESENTATION ON PEACE AND JUSTICE

date

WED. MAY 5, 2010

location

LAGUARDIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE LITTLE THEATER

time

10:30 AM – 11:30 AM

- Guest speakers

- Yuko Nakamura (77 years old), A-bomb survivor in Hiroshima
- Yoshio Tamura (68 years old), A-bomb survivor in Hiroshima
- Student leaders from Japan

- Moderator:

- Michele Piso, Ph. D. Assistant Director, Center for Teaching and Learning

- Interpreters:

- Kyoko Toyama, Ph.D. Counselor/Asst. Professor, College Discovery Program/Counseling Dept.
- Sayaka Takeda, Graduate Intern at Intl. High School from Counseling Psychology Dept., NYU

- Respondents

- LaGuardia students

You are invited to a panel presentation by A-bomb survivors and student leaders from Japan. Please join this unique opportunity to listen and have a dialog with the guests from Japan who are in New York to attend the United Nations Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty (NPT) Review Conference April 30 to May 5.

Please welcome the guests in LaGuardia way! Feel free to contact Kyoko Toyama at x5276 or kyokot@lagcc.cuny.edu for any questions.