Language Lounge is an international virtual language exchange project that connects students from Shinshu University in Japan and CUNY's Baruch and LaGuardia campuses in New York City. Designed to promote global understanding and enhance communication skills, the Language Lounge connects participants through online meetups. The program encourages cultural exchange and provides a relaxed environment where students practice speaking Japanese and English. This virtual language exchange project meets on Thursdays from April 17, 2025, to May 22, 2025.
