Course Description: This online course is designed to further develop students' language ability in French. The course continues to introduce students to the four language skills (i.e. speaking, writing, reading, and listening), fundamental grammar, as well as cultural facts of the Francophoneworld. An understanding of Francophone cultures is nourished through the examination of cultural practices and perspectives. The methodology used is communicative and literacy-based, meaning that in every lesson you will be learning language in order to perform a variety of interpersonal, presentational, and interpretive tasks.

Course Objectives: As speakers and writers, students are expected to present, in oral and written form, their views and opinions on experiences, ideas, and readings. By the end of the semester, students will be able to:

- Carry on a more complex conversation in French on such topics as food, family, travel...
- Communicate with others from the target culture in familiar everyday situations, using memorized language and showing basic cultural awareness.
- Present information on both very familiar and everyday topics using practiced or memorized words, phrases, and simple sentences through spoken or written language
- Communicate in spontaneous spoken or written conversations on both very familiar and everyday topics, using practiced or memorized words, phrases, simple sentences, and questions.
- Identify the general topic and some basic information in both very familiar and everyday contexts by recognizing practiced or memorized words, phrases, and simple sentences in texts that are spoken or written.

Assessment

Student Learning Outcomes	Measurements (means of assessment for student learning outcomes)
1. Students will be able to identify main aspects of an oral text, in the form of mini-dialogs, dictations or a short paragraph (200 words or less).	1. A listening comprehension part will be included in quizzes, homework exercises (textbook website) and exams.
2. Students will be able to identify and to analyze main aspects of a written text, in the form of a short descriptive narrative.	2. A reading comprehension part will be included in quizzes and exams.
3. Students will be able to write 200-350 word-compositions using present and past tense verbs as well as vocabulary about daily life (such as traveling, food, hobbies, etc.)	3. A writing part will be included in quizzes, homework exercises and exams.

Pre/Corequisites: CSE095 and ESL097

Flexible Core Objectives: World Cultures and Global Issues

The course bears 3 credits that count as Flexible Core (World Cultures and Global Issues) of the CUNY's new general education curriculum (Pathways). Note that students can receive only up to 6 credits in one Flexible Core area.

Textbook, grading, and class requirements

Textbooks: The following textbook is required for this class.

How to Do Well in this Class

1. Be an active learner. Active learners often have questions that reflect their engagement of the material.
2. Put yourself out there. Language learning requires you to make mistakes, both in your assignments and in the discussion forums.
3. Personalize vocabulary. You will remember vocabulary when you "own" it. Make words relevant to your life by thinking of what you can say about yourself with them. Write extra sentences that are meaningful to you so that the vocabulary becomes "yours" and expresses something about your world. Use the new vocabulary in your videos.
4. Develop your memorization skills. Experiment with different techniques, combining listening, speaking and writing together as much as possible.
5. Read out loud, and repeat new words many times. The only way to train your brain and your mouth to speak this language is by doing it aloud.

6. Correct yourself. Good language learners learn from their own successes and mistakes and those of others. Correcting mistakes is an essential part of the learning process.

Valuing LaGuardia's Diversity: As a college community we represent a world of perspectives on race, ethnicity, class, gender, sexual orientation, ability, religion, and nationality, to name a few. I concur with the College's Declaration of Pluralism, if you have any suggestions in helping me to create a welcoming classroom environment, please tell me.

Rules for Personal Conduct: You are expected to obey the rules and regulations of the College about conduct. Disorderly or indecent behavior is not appropriate in a college setting. It is a violation of college rules and is not acceptable.

The academic dishonesty policy: As stated in the catalog: "Academic Dishonesty is prohibited in the City University of New York and is punishable by penalties ranging from a grade of 'F' on a given test, research paper or assignment, to an 'F' in the course or suspension or expulsion from the College. Academic Dishonesty includes:

- Cheating; Plagiarism; Internet Plagiarism; Obtaining Unfair Advantages; Falsification of Records and Official Documents; Misconduct in Internships (117)

Policy on assigning the grade of Incomplete: As stated in the college catalogue: "The Incomplete grade may be awarded to students who have not completed all of the required course work but for whom there is a reasonable expectation of satisfactory completion. A student who is otherwise in good standing in a course defined as complying with the college attendance policy and maintaining a passing average but who has not completed at most two major assignments or examinations by the end of the course may request an incomplete grade. To be eligible, such a student must provide, before the instructor submits grades for the course, a documented reason, satisfactory to the instructor, for not having completed the assignment on time. Instructors giving IN grades must inform students in writing of the conditions under which they may receive passing grades. Departments may designate certain courses in which no incomplete grades may be awarded." (120).

Declaration of pluralism: The Education and Language Acquisition Department embraces diversity. We must respect each other regardless of race, culture, ethnicity, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation, disability and social class. For detailed information regarding the policy, please refer to Student Handbook 2011-2012 (p.89).
